

GRADUATE TO SUCCESS IN NORTHWEST INDIANA

Regional Partners for Talent Development

SUMMIT HOSTS:

Friday, November 13, 2015 • 8:00am-1:30pm

Avalon Manor

3550 US Hwy 30 –Merrillville, Indiana

READY NWI is pleased to partner with America's Promise Alliance to host this community summit as part of the GradNation campaign!

The summit will focus on working together as a region to integrate college and career readiness in our school systems and workforce development organizations, in an effort to reach the “big goal” – that by the year 2025, 60% of Northwest Indiana residents will have some post-secondary credential or degree.

SUMMIT SPONSORS:

GE Foundation

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 2015 SUMMIT

Special Guests:

Teresa Lubbers, Indiana Commissioner of Higher Education

Eboni-Rose Thompson, Manager Alliance Engagement, America's Promise Alliance, Washington DC

Richard E. Leverett, Director of External Affairs, AT&T Indiana

Regional Talent Readiness Snapshot: Reaching the Big Goal

Presented by Don Babcock, NiSource

Success through the Eyes of Partners Panel: Featuring K-12 and post-secondary educators and representatives from the economic development and business sectors

The Student Perspective

Hear what young people are saying about their education and college and career opportunities in Northwest Indiana

Roundtable Discussions

An opportunity to provide input while identifying and recommending action strategies to address student needs

Limited seats available and are on a first-come, first served basis. Registration includes continental breakfast and light lunch.

America's Promise Alliance was born from The Presidents' Summit for America's Future held in Philadelphia in April 1997, with retired Gen. Colin L. Powell as America's Promise's Founding Chairman. Today, Alma Powell serves as Chair of America's Promise. Since 1997, the America's Promise Alliance has grown to become the nation's largest multi-sector Alliance focused on the well being of young people. Today, America's Promise encompasses more than 380+ partner organizations representing the businesses, nonprofits, communities and policymakers.

To register for this NO COST event, email bgrmsgard@innovativeworkforce.com or complete the form and fax to 219-465-6860

Name: _____ Title: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____ City/State/Zip: _____

Email: _____

Questions? Call 219-462-2940

www.readynwi.com

www.facebook.com/ReadyNWI

Ready_NWI

